

October 2023

MFL ambassadors

Meet the team:

What are we proud of this half term?

We are very proud of becoming MFL ambassadors especially as we are a Centre of Excellence for this subject. We have enjoyed seeing our faces on the MFL ambassador wall and starting to plan for the year. International Day of Languages was also a highlight and sending our first post to our new school contact in France.

What we will be doing next half term?

It will be a busy half term creating links with our international schools. We are looking forward to furthering our links with the new French school and other schools across the world. Nearing Christmas we will also be leading an assembly about different international Christmas customs.

Reading ambassadors

Meet the team:

What are we proud of this half term?

Becoming Reading ambassadors and having responsibility has been a real highlight. We have been part of School Libraries Month assembly and also written a letter to parents about the new Blue Peter Badge. The letter also encouraged our pupils to take part in the Outwood Reading Club over half term with their spooky reads...

What we will be doing next half term?

Next half term, we will be starting our Blue Peter Reading club and relaunching our book donation point. We will also continue to support our teachers to make the best Reading areas possible for our classes, and looking for new reads for the library! For Christmas we will be also sending home our reading bingo cards again!

Key dates:

Week of 6th November - start to bring in book donations again.

Week of 13th November - start of book club

Wellbeing Champions

Meet the team:

What are we proud of this half term?

We are proud to have been chosen as our class mental health and wellbeing champions. We are proud of the assembly we have already been part of, leading a small section each. We have re-launched our kindness awards and our kindness jars and our worry jar in class.

What we will be doing next half term?

We have a busy half term as we are going to be trained in restorative practice which will help and support everyone. We also have anti bullying week and Odd Socks Day coming up.

Key dates:

Anti bullying week - Mon 13th - Fri 17th November.

Odd Socks Day - Monday 13th November

School Parliament

Meet the team:

What are we proud of this half term?

We are really proud of making it into school parliament this year!

We have chosen the departments we are interested in and are really excited for the upcoming events.

Our first event is the Harvest Food bank, which we will be collecting food for our local food bank in Hemsworth.

What we will be doing next half term?

Next half term we will be collecting at road safety, organising an assembly and the reindeer run.

Key dates:

16-20th October- collection for food bank

Road safety- TBC